A close-up, warm-toned photograph of a roasted chicken, likely a whole bird, resting on a wooden platter. Wisps of white steam rise from the chicken's surface, suggesting it is freshly cooked and hot. In the foreground, a variety of fresh ingredients are artfully arranged: several bright red tomatoes, a bunch of green onions, and an assortment of whole spices including cinnamon sticks, star anise, and cardamom pods. The background is softly blurred, emphasizing the textures and colors of the food. The word "electrogas" is superimposed in the center in a clean, white, sans-serif font, with a registered trademark symbol (®) to its upper right.

A woman with long blonde hair, wearing a purple cardigan with white lace trim, is cooking in a kitchen. She is using a wooden spoon to stir ingredients in a black frying pan. The kitchen features bright red upper and lower cabinets with silver handles. A stainless steel oven is built into the red cabinetry, with a digital display showing '0:40'. In the foreground, on a white countertop, there is a black knife block and a glass jar containing various kitchen utensils like a whisk and spatulas. The background shows more kitchenware on shelves.
